National Day of the Family Observed by (Club or County FCE)

(Club or County Association) for Family and Community Education joins the Missouri FCE and the National FCE in proclaiming May 15, 2008, National FCE Day of the Family. All citizens are urged to join FCE members in this observance by giving Books to Newborns.

(You may elaborate on the Books for Newborns project in your area or describe any other project you are conducting to promote National Day of the Family in this paragraph.)

MAFCE is associated with the University of Missouri Outreach and Extension Program in a cooperative effort to provide programs and assistance that promote personal growth and improvement in the quality of family and community living.

The mission of the Association for Family and Community Education is to strengthen individuals and families through continuing education, leadership development and community action.

For more information on other programs and the “Book for Newborns” project or to learn how to participate, contact (provide names(s) of a local person(s) and telephone number(s).
